

HACCP (Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Point) (Level 3) – CIEH Intermediate Certificate

Overview

HACCP (Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Point) helps food businesses review and improve how they handle food. It's a proven system that ensures the food you produce is safe to eat.

If your business serves food, you're required by law to have a food safety management system based on HACCP.

This course will enable managers and supervisors to develop their knowledge of food safety and at the same time ensure that you meet your legal obligations and minimise risks.

This workshop will help you:

- Acquire a deeper understanding of food management legislation
- Monitor, evaluate and review processes and procedures such as dating and stock rotation
- Learn about food safety management based on codex principles and the practical application of HACCP

Who should attend?

Supervisors and managers within catering, retail and food manufacturing organisations.

Format

A three-day programme, for up to 12 people, with a short multiple-choice test, the successful completion of which qualifies participants for the CIEH Level 3 Award, Intermediate Certificate in HACCP.
