

Occupational Health and Safety (Level 3) – CIEH Intermediate Certificate

Overview

This course aims to provide managers and supervisors with a thorough understanding of the different aspects of health and safety in the workplace.

With a focus on the role of supervision, learners on this course will develop the essential knowledge and understanding to enable them to discharge their health and safety responsibilities and ensure the safety of their workplace colleagues.

The programme has a particular focus on:

- The importance of planning, risk profiling and organisational implementation of health and safety in occupational settings
- The monitoring, measurement and investigation processes required to comply with legislation

Topics covered include:

- Occupational health and safety management
- Safety culture
- The 'Plan – Do – Check – Act – Review' model
- Risk assessment
- Work-related injuries – hazards and controls
- Work-related ill health – hazards and controls
- Organisation and implementation
- Checking performance
- Reviewing performance

Who should attend?

- Managers and supervisors within any workplace environment

Format

A three-day session, for up to 12 people, with a short multiple-choice test, the successful completion of which qualifies participants for the CIEH Level 3 Award, Intermediate Certificate in Occupational Health and Safety.
